PRIVACY ACT

The following quote is from the Privacy Commissioner of Canada regarding the new Privacy Act which was implemented January 1, 2003:

The fact sheet issued by the Privacy Commissioner of Canada points out that the presence of commercial activity is the most important consideration for nonprofits. However, fundraising is not a commercial activity, nor is collecting membership fees, organizing club activities, compiling a list of members' names and addresses, or mailing out newsletters. While the act of asking for donations is not subject to the Act, charities and nonprofits are still required to seek appropriate consent if selling, bartering, or leasing lists. These are considered to be commercial activities.

PLEASE NOTE

The North Lanark Agricultural Society does not sell, barter or lease any of the information we have on file regarding names, addresses etc. of all exhibitors at the annual agricultural fair, all members and all donors to the Society.

President's Message

Thank you for entering an exhibit, sponsoring a class or helping in any way with our 2007 Almonte Fair. Some of the changes in this year's Fair include a Demolition Derby on Friday evening and exciting entertainment with George Fox on Saturday evening. Johnny Spinks will entertain in the Beer Garden as well on Saturday night after the grandstand show. Please take time to check out all our events and displays. Don't assume something is of no interest – have a look!

Like most fairs, our year-round operating costs are greater than fair revenues. That is why we have euchre evenings, car bingos, truck/tractor pulls, dances, hall rentals and other activities to raise the necessary funds.

I want to thank everyone who supports us financially, attends the events and helps us in any way. I thank our executive, all our chairpersons, members and volunteers. Enjoy our 149th Fair and come back in 2008 to help us celebrate our 150th.

Sincerely,
Al Barratt
President

The Homecraft President's Message

Thank you for picking up this prize list. Many people have worked on this booklet and have high hopes that you will find many sections that entice you to enter in the "culinary arts". The Agricultural Hall is gigantic and we need your talents to fill it – so bring your crafts, bake up a storm, show off the bounty from your garden and display that unbelievable photograph that you took over the past year. Everyone would love to see your "works".

For me personally, it has been great again to work with the Fair President, Al Barratt, all the volunteers in Homecraft and the members of the Fair Board. It has been great to see so many new members coming on board, but we could still use more. If you can give a few hours of your time, please phone the Fair Secretary at 613-257-5050.

Please visit the Agricultural Hall during the Fair – enjoy the exhibits, socialize with friends, enjoy some pie, and shop at the inside vendors.

See you at the 149th Annual Almonte Fair, as we celebrate the theme "Just Kidding".

Yours sincerely,
Dianna Brydges-Lachapelle

Dry Ingredients: Mix well.

2 cups oriental white rice flour	1 cup gluten-free flour mix
1-1/2 tbsps. clear gel (4-1/2 tsp)	1/4 cup sugar
3-1/2 tps. xanthan gum	1-1/2 tps. salt
1 cup non-fat dry milk powder	2-1/2 tps. active dry yeast

Wet Ingredients:

1 tsp. apple cider vinegar	2 large eggs
*1-1/2 cups warm water (110-120 degrees)	1/4 cup corn oil

Preparation:

(* - note: add 1 to 3 tablespoons additional water, mixing well between additions, for softer texture bread. Amount needed depends on humidity and room temperature.

Grease a 9" x 5" loaf pan. Mix all dry ingredients well, including yeast. Blend eggs into warm water using a fork or whisk. Pour water/egg mixture into dry ingredients and mix on slowest speed of mixer until flour is moistened. Add oil and increase speed of mixer, blending all ingredients until you have a smooth creamy batter. Mix two minutes. Add more water for a "creamier" batter if desired. Pour into loaf pan and allow to rise in warm place to top of pan.

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Bake on center rack for 50 to 60 minutes until brown. Cool in pan for 3 to 5 minutes, then remove bread from pan and place on rack to finish cooling.

When completely cool, slice and store in an airtight container lined with paper towels. Refrigerate within 48 hours. Keeps 7 to 10 days.

1/2 tsp. baking powder.

1-1/2 tsps. baking powder	2 tsps. vanilla
1/2 cup butter	3/4 cup white sugar
3 tbsps. brown sugar	2 eggs
3 tablespoons milk

1-1/2 cups apples, peeled, cored and shredded (about 2 apples)
Icing sugar for dusting – optional.

Preparation:

Preheat oven to 350 degrees F. Grease either a 9” round springform pan or 8” square cake pan, and dust with rice flour.

In a medium bowl, whisk together the flour mix, xanthan gum, baking soda, baking powder and cinnamon. Set aside.

In a large bowl, cream the butter for about 1 minute or until softened. Add both sugars to butter and beat for about 2 minutes. Add the eggs, one at a time, and beat until well incorporated. Blend in the milk. Mix on low and add the dry ingredients half at a time, blending after each addition, until they are well absorbed. Gently fold in the shredded apples. Spoon the batter into the prepared pan and bake for 40-45 minutes, or until toothpick tests clean and cake pulls away from edge of pan. Cool at least 10 minutes before removing from pan.
