President's Message

Greetings everyone!

It is with great pleasure I look forward to the 152nd Almonte Fair serving my first year as President of the North Lanark Agricultural Society (NLAS).

The Almonte Fair has a wide range of competitions for everyone to enter, from exhibits in the Agricultural Hall to the livestock shows at the barns and in front of the grandstand. Every year exhibitors are challenged to showcase their creativity using the fairs theme, this year it is, "Barnyard Antics".

Once again the fair will play host to a variety of entertainment. The bump 'n smash of the demolition derby returns Friday night. Saturday afternoon, at the grandstand, the children's games, Tug-o-War and the Outhouse Races, back by popular demand. On center-stage, in the Agricultural Hall, you will find live entertainment, a baby show and the Jr. Prince & Princess competition. The pet show is back again this year, on Sunday, as well as the heavy horse show. As other years, you will continue to enjoy Conklin's Super Shows midway, Education Barn and numerous vendors from near and far.

Many thanks to the board of directors, volunteers, sponsors, and exhibitors for all your support. It is through your commitment that a successful and fun-filled fair experience is possible. If you enjoy working with other people, I urge you to become a member, volunteer or exhibitor of NLAS, to make sure the fair tradition continues.

Please come and enjoy all there is to see and do at the 2010 edition of the Almonte Fair.

See you at the fair!

Yours Truly,

Alyssa Toshack
President

Homecraft President's Message

Already, the 152nd Almonte Fair is upon us as we celebrate our theme , "Barnyard Antics". It is unbelievable that another year has passed us by so fast! Once again, we are gearing up to display our antics, to spread our enthusiasm and have you join us once more to support all the hard work and efforts of our volunteers.

Come, join us in the Agricultural Hall to see all the exhibit classes; juniors, seniors, women's institutes, crafts, children, horticultural displays and so many more that make the hall spectacular. Don't be shy, browse the many vendors and refreshments and enjoy all the outstanding attractions that make the Almonte fair one of a kind.

If you have never entered a project in the homecraft divisions, please feel free to try something new and enter. The many volunteers that make this fair jump will gladly help you.

Thanks to all the volunteers, exhibitors who make coming to the fair interesting every year without skipping a beat. Very special thanks to our sponsors who make the event possible each and every year!

I am indebted to the wonderful group of men and women who make the fair a "mooving" experience and event to look forward to year after year.

Enjoy the Almonte Fair!

Yours Sincerely,
Betty Renaud,
Homecraft President

Privacy Act

The following quote is from the Privacy Commissioner of Canada regarding the new Privacy Act which was implemented January 1, 2003:

The fact sheet issued by the Privacy Commissioner of Canada points out that the presence of commercial activity is the most important consideration for nonprofits. However, fundraising is not a commercial activity, nor is collecting membership fees, organizing club activities, compiling a list of members' names and addresses, or mailing out newsletters. While the act of asking for donations is not subject to the Act, charities and nonprofits are still required to seek appropriate consent if selling, bartering, or leasing lists. These are considered to be commercial activities.

Education Barn

The Almonte Fair over the past decade has set aside an area that tries to provide a chance for children and their parents who might have no farm background to see a variety of farm animals and have a chance to ask questions about the source of their food. Local farmers loan their animals for the fair and information about the breeds are posted. Demonstrations such as sheep shearing and milking cows or goats are put on at scheduled times. Each year special exhibits pertaining to the fair theme are part of this area.

As the ratio of farmers to urban dwellers continues to change, the Education Barn will need to expand their exhibits to try to bridge the growing gap.

Come visit us at Barn 3 for an experience you won't soon forget!!

(1) Any animal determined by an inspector (who is also a veterinarian) to have any udder manifesting any of the following: localized swelling, oedema, erythema, sensitivity, reddening, firmness, warmth or exfoliation of the skin, but excluding general oedema associated with parturition or mastitis, or a sore in the area where the large blood vessels enter the udder.

(2) Any animal entered by an exhibitor who, or whose servants, agents or servants, persons acting on behalf of the exhibitor, fails to co-operate in the inspections provided for under paragraphs 3 or 4.

(b) The inspector's determination pursuant to sub- paragraph (a) (1) is subject to an appeal by the exhibitor to the appeal committee appointed by the show for the purpose. Any such appeal must be made by notice in writing delivered to the show management within one hour of notification of the inspector's determination.

6) No entry shall be removed from the Fair buildings prior to being exhibited, for any purpose, except upon the express permission of the General Manager and under supervision while absent from permission shall be disqualified.

PART III:

All exhibitors and their filters, agents or other representatives agree to abide by the following procedures:

1) Exhibitors, agents, employees or other person acting on behalf of an exhibitor, shall deliver to an inspector upon request any hypodermic syringe, needle or other device, swabs, cloths or other material, or samples of any medicine, preparation or substance, whether in liquid or other form, for the purposes of laboratory analysis.

2) All entries and personal property of the exhibitors, their servants and agents and persons acting on behalf of exhibitors, are subject to inspection by inspectors authorized by a show. All such persons shall co-operate with the inspectors and shall provide all such information in connection with such inspections and shall provide access to the animal and all information reasonably required by inspectors in connection with such inspections and shall provide, if so requested, samples of urine, milk, blood, or any other body fluids suitable for analysis.

3) Exhibitors shall remove any udder supports, blankets or other objects limiting the ability of the inspector to undertake a thorough inspection.

4) The exhibitor agrees to act at all times in accordance with the Rules and Regulations for Showing and the Standard procedures, and will
