President's Message

Once again I am pleased to present to you the Almonte Fair, a tradition that has been carried on for 155 years.

While at the fair see the arts and crafts, food and produce in the Main Hall as well as the return of Papa's Trains and Little Ray's Reptiles. Watch the many Livestock shows and visit the Education Barn where you can see and learn about many types of animals. Watch the smoke and see the thrills of the Demo Derby. Socialize in the Beer Tent. Relax on our Covered Grandstand while you watch our Night Show. Cheer on your favourite team in the Out House Races.

Please take the time to thank the many dedicated and enthusiastic Directors and Volunteers who have put much of their time into planning this year's event. Also support our Sponsors and Donors. Bring a friend or meet a new friend!

The Education Barn

For many years, the directors of the Almonte Fair have taken seriously the task of bridging the growing gap in knowledge between urban people and the producers of food on our farms. Most children have little chance to see farm animals in the flesh or to understand where the food they eat, is produced.

However in September of 2010, the barn where this educational effort was held, burned to the ground, as a result of vandalism. The rebuilding effort was well supported by the community at a Barn Raising Dance in January of 2011 but months of trying to comply with various levels of government, including the MVCA because it was on a floodplain, resulted in less than a month to build the barn which was accomplished by the contractors-the Miller Boys.

The new airy building is a comfortable place for farmers to display their animals for demonstrations such as sheep shearing and for expanded exhibits that children can interact with as they learn that milk and eggs don't just appear on the grocery shelf.

Don't miss this important part of the fair!

Jordan McIntosh

Destiny. There's little more powerful than that which is predetermined for us. Just ask Jordan McIntosh. The latest set of pipes poised to overtake the world of country, this Ottawa-based teen heartthrob is clearly an apple in fate's eye. Not that he's about to let fate make all the decisions. After releasing his debut single "Walk Away" his future is certainly a vast wealth of opportunity. Initially discovering a love of singing under innocent youthful pretences, McIntosh's inimitable abilities blossomed into what is now a budding, enviable career.

NLAS is proud to present this local talent from neighbouring community, Carleton Place, Ontario.

Presenting Sponsor:

Autumn Hill

Autumn Hill is, Mike Robins and Tareya Green!

Toronto born, Mike Robins has been a part of the music scene for many years. As a working musician he earned his keep as a session man and playing the club circuit with a who's who of well-known local Toronto artists.

From the early age of 5 Calgary native Tareya Green has taken every opportunity to use her incredible vocal gift, from local choirs, to performing around the country in youth groups

Mike and Tareya were both working on their respective solo careers when they signed to Canadian indie label Wax Records. Serendipitously they met at a label seasonal holiday get together, turned jam session. The magic that ensued that night prompted the two of them to start exploring the idea of a duo and Autumn Hill was born. Autumn Hill's first single "Anything At All" became the surprise success story of 2012, rocketing up the Canadian country music charts. The band has earned the #2 spot on TopCountry.ca's "Artists to Watch" list.

Privacy Act

The following quote is from the Privacy Commissioner of Canada regarding the new Privacy Act which was implemented January 1, 2003:

The fact sheet issued by the Privacy Commissioner of Canada points out that the presence of commercial activity is the most important consideration for non-profits. However, fundraising is not a commercial activity, nor is collecting membership fees, organizing club activities, compiling a list of members' names and addresses, or mailing out newsletters. While the act of asking for donations is not subject to the Act, charities and non-profits are still required to seek appropriate consent if selling, bartering, or leasing lists. These are considered to be commercial activities.

PLEASE NOTE

The North Lanark Agricultural Society does not sell, barter or lease any of the information we have on file regarding names, addresses etc. of all exhibitors at the annual agricultural fair, all members and all donors to the Society. NLAS reserves the right to publicly congratulate winners where appropriate and keep contact information of exhibitors on file for future fairs.

Any person who shall attempt to interfere with the judges, while in the discharge of their duties, or use any contemptuous or abusive language to any judge, in consequence of any award made by him, shall forfeit his or her right to any premium to which he/she might otherwise be entitled, and judges are requested to report any such instances.
23. In the absence of any competition in any section or if the stock or article exhibited be of an inferior quality, the judge(s) will award only such premium as they consider the stock or articles merits. They will exercise their discretion as to whether they will award the first, second or any premium.
24. In addition to the stated premiums offered for articles listed in the prizebook, the judge shall have power to award discretionary premiums for such animals or articles not listed, as they may consider worthy. The judge may also distinguish such articles as they consider worthy of notice, but which have not received prizes, with the words “commended or highly commended” but shall not entitle the owner to any premium.

25. Judges of Homecraft work are authorized to disqualify all soiled, defaced or old work and are instructed to award the prizes to new and up to date work only.
26. All judges' decisions will be final.
27. Judging for Homecraft exhibitors starts at 8:30am on the Friday morning of the fair and as a result, the hall will be closed while judging is in progress.
28. All judges must be experienced in the class they are judging and may not be members of the Board of Directors.
